Lol. Funny. You can make up for it by bringing some jerky to the next meeting if you bag anything.

Dr. McDermott is not willing to meet with our medical monitoring/health study BWT following her presentation.....Guess I can leave earlier on Friday (maybe as in Thursday night) to go hunting.

Hello: At Dr. McDermott's request, I am canceling this meeting, with Dr. McDermott's preference being to function as an independent researcher vs. being asked her opinion in a health group setting. Thanks very much, and I hope to see you all at Dr. McDermott's Oct. 18 presentation at Montana Tech.

Dr. McDermott is a professor in the Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics at the University of South Carolina's Arnold School of Public Health in Columbia, S.C. She is an author of the recent study titled "Population-based mortality data suggest remediation is modestly effective in two Montana Superfund counties."
